Present
Their world famous

'OLD TIME MUSIC HALL'

DECEMBER 2011

Under the Chairmanship of Mr Alan Taylor
The Worthy Players present
Old Time Music Hall

The Gentlemen

Mr David Early - Often to be found wanting - this, that and the other!

Mr Michael Edwards - An old stager in the truest form of the address

Mr Cye Gates - The 'Vin d'Table' of fine wines

Mr Michael Heseldin - Frequently to be found clearing the local hostelrys

Mr Nick Kearns - At the peak of his decline

Mr Peter McLoughlin - Late of the Queen's Territorial Scroungers

Mr Peter Nouwens - Just returned from the Penal Colonies

Mr Martin Pettigrew - A man of whom it is often said, but never repeated

Mr Peter Wooldridge - Unrestrained, in spite of popular demand

Mr David Woolford - Best before the end of last week

The Ladies

Miss Janine Blackmore – A woman with a past, unfortunately not suitable to be discussed here

Miss Miriam Edmond – Musicality is her middle name, among others

Miss Sarah Gates – Winchester's answer to Eastern Promise

Miss Sarah Hammond – Her 101st Maiden appearance

Miss Shirley Lovell – A lady of impeccable taste, even with someone else's teeth

Miss Cherryl Martin – A pocket dynamo in need of a wheel

Miss Fiona McLoughlin – Able to mix with her elders and understand them

Miss Jacqueline Nouwens – Known as the lady who can, and often does

Miss Julie Pettigrew – Bed baths a speciality!

Miss Barbara Tites – Uses a pseudonym to prevent recognition by the police

Miss Kirsty Turner – A frequent performer in numerous unmentionable venues

Miss Clare Walker – Never knowingly underpriced

Miss Alison Woolford – whose voice has not been trained so much as shunted.
