From the Producer

Youth III already! How time flies. My thanks to the Worthy Players for again providing the opportunity and support for the Youth Production. And again the young people have shown commitment, enthusiasm and not a little talent. I also want to include a special thanks to Mike Edwards whose artistic talents shine through in our wonderful set.

Charlotte Hammond

Charlotte's involvement in theatre is a real family affair. She has appeared in a number of Worthy Players pantos. She is really enjoying "starring" in Youth III

Kitty Leask

Kitty makes another appearance this year, with her mother this time, as a woodland animal. She's really enjoyed rehearsals with Abigail & Charlotte.

Abigail Hammond

Another "star" from the Hammond dynasty, Abigail too has been appeared in a number of Worthy Players pantos. She feels that she has brought new insights to the characters of goldilocks and Granny, who have been given a raw deal.

Jo Lewis

This is not Joanna's first "treading of the boards" although it is her first production with the Worthy Players. She played a major role in The Little Fir Tree for which she also wrote the script. The role of Bunny gives her the first opportunity to die on stage.

---

Hilary Nouwens

This is Hilary's 6th production with the Worthy Players. She has played everything from a Jewel in Aladdin's cave to a piece of laundry. She played Miss Marple in last years Worthy Youth production of A Murder is Announced.

Cristina Lewis

This is Christina's debut with the Worthy Players. Her previous experience includes plays every year in primary school, and The Canterbury Tales at the Westgate School. Christina is looking forward to following this play with a part in the group's pantomime.

Billy Pettigrew

Billy has appeared in a number of productions for the Worthy Players, from a Guard in Robin Hood to a Street Boy in A Christmas Carol. He does find playing both a criminal and a police officer in this production a little confusing.

Emma Haywood

Emma has appeared on the Worthy Players stage since Primary School. She has been chorus, a villager and was an outstanding stage manager for the last Worthy Youth production; A Murder Is Announced. She is enjoying working with the varied ages in the production and hopes to have vindicated Big Bad Wolverers everywhere.

---

Frankie Dowthwaite

This is Frankie's first appearance with the Worthy Players. Having always thought of herself as quiet, she has found volume at rehearsals simply in self confidence. She finds her role of Usher excellent for being part of the action without having to learn too many lines.

Megan Parker

Megan returns to the group after a number of years, to play a woodland animal. She is a member of Claire Goodwin's theatre school.
