

THE THEATRE ROYAL - WINCHESTER - 7.30 pm

OLD TYME MUSIC HALL

Presented by Mr. Frank Sweet and the Worthy Players

"Defies Superlatives"

Saturday 13th February 1993

"A Bonanza
of Wit, Fun & Song"

*in aid of The Mayor's Charities :-
The Southwick Area Hospice
Age Concern Winchester
The R. A. F. Benevolent Fund*

"Good evening and Welcome!
LADIES and GENTLEMEN!"

THE WORTHY PLAYERS

proudly present

THE GREATEST MUSIC HALL BILL EVER ASSEMBLED CHAired WITH EBULLIENT EQUANIMITY

by

MR FRANCIS SWEET

with

Corybantic Choreography arranged by

MISS STACEY SCAMMELL

and

Ochlacratic Orchestration

performed by

MR PETER SKIDMORE Pasha of the Players at the Mighty Pianofifty

and

His Serene Highness

RICHARD BALL
Monarch Elect of Micheldever on a stringed instrument of doubtful origin

The following artistes have the audacity to seek your approbation

MR NICHOLAS BOATWRIGHT	Word Underwater Pole Vault Champion 1896	MISS STACEY SCAMMELL	The World's leading exponent of High Wire Lion Taming
MR DOMINIC CLIFFORD	Direct from his tour of Hampton Court Maze	MISS GERALDINE STEAD	Whose voice has been compared to Melba, but not favourably
MISS EILEEN GEORGE	Triumphant from her tour of The Goodwin Sands	MISS VALERIE SWEET	Specialist in portraying innocent maidens and other impersonations
MISS MONICA GOMM	Appearing entirely in stereoscope	MISS GILLIAN WALKER	Fleet footed - loves running after sailors
MR RICHARD GOMM	Man about town, Notary Public, and burst pipes repaired while you wait	MISS KAREN WOOD	Renowned underwater soprano
MISS GWENDOLINE GRANT	Well known for entertaining the troops - one at a time	MISS ALISON WOOLFORD	Musically inclined. Best noted for her performance on the linoleum
MISS JEANNE MARTIN	Celebrated in many fields, especially the one behind the fire station	MR DAVID WOOLFORD	Unforgettable - no matter how hard you try
MISS TRACEY RUTHERFORD	Pert, petite and pretty - a right handful!	MISS SALLY WRIGHT	Flushed with success from her record breaking season at Looe
MR IAN SCAMMELL	The Sensation of Burridges Cocoa Rooms

Please Note: Spitting is Forbidden. Shouting, Whistling and Buying Drinks for the Chairman are Positively Encouraged.

Stage Management

For the Worthy Players

Major General Paul Hankinson, Queen's Equerry and Lay Reader at The Mormon Tabernacle, Balls Pond Road, assisted by Lance Corporal of House of Richard Aldous, Artistic Advisor to the Shah of Persia.

For the Theatre Royal

The Management, Staff and Volunteers

Costume

The many well known items of wardrobe have been disguised, beyond belief, by Miss Eileen George, Miss Valerie Sweet, and other ladies of The Company