

The Worthy Players Amateur Dramatic Society

Data Protection Procedures

1. Introduction

1. The Worthy Players (hereafter named as 'we') have a Data Protection Policy which is reviewed biennially. In order to help us uphold the policy, we have created the following procedures which outline ways in which we collect, store, use, amend, share, destroy and delete personal data.
2. These procedures cover the main, regular ways we collect and use personal data. We may from time to time collect and use data in ways not covered here. In these cases we will ensure our Data Protection Policy is upheld.

2. General procedures

1. Data will be stored securely. When it is stored electronically, it will be kept in password protected files. When it is stored online in a third party website (e.g. Mailchimp or our Google Drive) we will ensure the third party complies with the UK GDPR. On the rare occasion when it is stored on paper it will be filed carefully in a locked filing cabinet.
2. When we no longer need data, or when someone has asked for their data to be deleted, it will be deleted securely. We will ensure that data is permanently deleted from computers, and that paper data is shredded.
3. We will keep records of consent given for us to collect, use and store data. These records will be stored securely.

3. Mailing list for supporters

1. We will maintain an audience mailing list on Mailchimp. This will include the names and contact details of people who wish to receive publicity and updates from The Worthy Players.
2. When people sign up to the list we will explain how their details will be used, how they will be stored, and that they may ask to be removed from the list at any time. We will ask them to give separate consent for any additional reason, and will only send them messages which they have expressly consented to receive.

3. We will not use the mailing list in any way that the individuals on it have not explicitly consented to.
4. We will provide information about how to be removed from the list with every mailing.
5. We will use mailing list providers who store data within the United States of America

4. Mailing list for membership

1. Prospective members join The Worthy Players by completing an agreed membership form - <https://forms.gle/hpBvipMZDsfCZw287> . We will maintain this membership form as part of a list on our Google Drive. This will include the names and contact details of people who wish to participate in explicit activities with The Worthy Players.
2. When people sign up to the list we will explain how their details will be used, how they will be stored, and that they may ask to be removed from the list at any time. We will ask them to give separate consent for any additional reason, and will only send them messages which they have expressly consented to receive.
3. We will not use the mailing list in any way that the individuals on it have not explicitly consented to.
4. We will provide information about how to be removed from the list with every mailing.
5. We will use mailing list providers who store data within the United States of America

5. Contacting volunteers

1. Past members and individuals connected with members volunteer for The Worthy Players in a number of ways, for instance front of house duties and set building.
2. We will maintain a list of contact details of our recent volunteers. We will share group opportunities and requests for help with the people on this list.
3. People will be removed from the list if they have not volunteered for the group for over 12 months.
4. When contacting people on this list, we will provide a copy of our privacy notice which explains why we have their information, what we are using it for, how long we will keep it, and that they can ask to have it deleted or amended at any time by contacting us.
5. To allow volunteers to work together to organise for The Worthy Players, it is sometimes necessary to share volunteer contact details with other volunteers. We will only do this with explicit consent.

6. Contacting committee members

1. The committee need to be in contact with one another in order to run The Worthy Players effectively and ensure its legal obligations are met.

2. Committee contact details will be shared among the committee.
3. Committee members will not share each other's' contact details with anyone outside of the committee, or use them for anything other than The Worthy Players business, without explicit consent.

7. Review

These procedures will be reviewed every two years
